When Thorik went to Rosalina's world, something unexpected happened. He forgot the kits. Amber, Copper, and Ginger are left behind at Seabird Island.

Rosalina makes sure there is a pipe in the world. "It's supposed to be the Sun," she said.

She sends them back to Thorik's Blocky World. But Thorik and his friends pop up again!

Page 2

"We need your help!" Thorik said. The kits are missing.

Rosalina has an idea. She lets Thorik and Ari's wolf - Tory and Toffee, the red fox who is curious, to the space world, when the pipe is underground.

But then, disaster!

They are in the wrong world!

This is not a space world at all!

Page 3

They are in LEGOland!

Rosalina has another idea.

She lets Thorik, Tory and Toffee go to her new space world.

But again, they are in Egypt!

Rosalina has another idea.

She lets Thorik, Tory and Toffee go to her space world, and they did!

Page 4

Now they are in space!

Rosalina was so happy, she got Thorik, Tory and Toffee into her world, and the kits were here with astronaut suits.

Really funny!

Rosalina laughed and laughed.

After she finishes laughing, they play hide and seek on Mars.

And play tic-tac-toe on the Moon.

And they play a game of "don't touch the Sun" next to the Sun. (This is very dangerous obviously)

After that, Rosalina lets Thorik, Tory, Toffee and the kits back to her world.

They traveled across Egypt and LegoLand, and they are back to Mushroom Kingdom.

"Well done!" said Rosalina.

She is proud of Thorik, Tory, the kits, and Toffee.

Amber, Copper and Ginger jump up and down excitedly.

Rosalina smiled. "This is the best day ever," she thought.

Later that day, Rosalina visits Thorik's blocky world.

"Time for dinner!" said Thorik, giving a slice of meat to Tory, the three kits, and Toffee.

Rosalina joins the fun. She eats veggies, some apples from Thorik's farm. And she ate a slice of bread Thorik gave to her.

When the sky grew dark, Rosalina shared Thorik's bed. So they sleep through the night. But Amber, Copper and Ginger are still awake, they want to join the fun, but now they are sleepy.

Toffee and Tory are sleeping through the night on Thorik's bed.

Everyone slept until the Sun came up.

The next day, Rosalina ate some breakfast. She ate french toast with Thorik.

Toffee and Tory and the three kits ate their favourite meat - pork!

When everyone goes out, Rosalina has a plan. She went through the river.

"Rosalina, what's going on?" asked Thorik, as the three kits, Tory and Toffee ran beside her.

"I want to build a bridge, maybe we can work together?" Thorik asked quietly.

"Sure," said Rosalina.

Page 8

So everyone works on the bridge, but Tory, Toffee and the three kits do not like water, so they sit there and watch the fun.

Rosalina built the sturdy bridge of the world with Thorik.

Rosalina makes the safety handles so that Thorik can cross the bridge.(maybe they can test it in page 9)

After they finished making the bridge, it was time to test.

Page 9

Rosalina would go first.

She crosses the bridge with safety handles.

She got across from the water.

"Well done!" said Thorik. "I will go second".

Now Thorik went up the bridge with the safety handles and made it across the bridge.

When the Sun goes down, it is time for Rosalina to go back to her world.

"Goodbye Thorik," said Rosalina.

"Goodbye Rosalina," said Thorik.

When she made it back to Seabird Island, she saw the green pipe and went down to the pipe.

When she landed on another world, she got an unexpected surprise!

Page 10

"Oh no!" groaned Rosalina. "Not again!"
