Chapter 1

A New Start II

The whole time it was the morning of sunrise.

Charlie practically bounced out of bed, too excited to eat his breakfast slowly.

After breakfast, he puts on his rainbow colored clothes, and he sets out to catch Pokemon.

When he got to the middle of the school, he saw a dragon as big as a school bus, its pointy wings spread wide as it breathed fire!

Charlie looks up E.V.E, his Pokedex for the list of Pokemon were fire and flying types.

"Charizard," E.V.E said, "The flame Pokemon. A flying and fire type. It spits fire that is hot enough to melt boulders."

Charlie was confused. He sends out Swanna, the water and flying type Pokemon.

Charlie commands Swanna to use Bubble Beam (attack move) against Charizard. SPLASH!

"Roaaaaar ..." Charizard roared weakly, then its fiery breath fizzled out as it slowly collapsed to the ground. THUD!

Charlie held the Great Ball high in the air, and he threw the ball high in the air and fell on Charizard.

POOF! WOBBLE WOBBLE WOBBLE, CLICK!

In a flash of light, Charizard disappeared. It was captured in the Great Ball.

Charlie held up the Great ball that Charizard captured inside.

"I caught a Charizard!" He yelled.

* * * * *

The next day, Charlie walked to school with Swanna. His classmate, Pedro, was waiting for him.

"What are you doing here yesterday?" Pedro asked.

When they reach their favourite elementary school, Ella Mentry School, they found out another Pokemon is in their classroom, squirting water everywhere! SPLASH SPLASH SPLASH!

The children were screaming so loudly, like a million tiny alarms!

IT WAS CHAOS! IT WAS NUTS! TOTALLY NUTS!

Their teacher, Mr. Nay, tried to calm the children down.

Pedro looks up at E.V.E. "Quagsire," said E.V.E. "The water fish Pokemon. A water and ground type. It has an easygoing nature. It evolved from Wooper."

Charlie held up the Great Ball. "Go, Charizard!" he yelled. Charizard appeared in a flash of smoke.

"Flamethrower!" Charlie yelled. A few seconds later, Charizard opened its big mouth and hot red fire came out from it, and was heading towards Quagsire!

OOF! Quagsire suddenly fainted.

Charlie held up a Pokeball, and he threw it at Quagsire.

POOF! WOBBLE, WOBBLE, WOBBLE, CLICK!

Suddenly, Quagsire disappeared inside the ball.

Charlie held the Pokeball high in the air when Quagsire was captured.

"I caught a Quagsire!" He yelled.

Chapter 2

Big Venusaur Fight

The next day, Pedro and Charlie went to the Aloha region. They searched all sorts of Pokemon including Crabrawler!

When they were searching, a weird Pokemon emerged from the trees. "Venusaur!" it said. Charlie rolled his eyes. He sends out Quagsire. Quagsire used Water Gun attack move and (OOF!) Venusaur collapsed immediately.

Pedro threw a Curve Ball at Venusaur and Venusaur disappeared inside the ball.

"I caught a Venusaur!" Pedro cried.

* * * * *

The day after that, Pedro and Charlie went to the Kanto region. They explored a lot of Pokemon, and they met Ash, Misty and Brock along the way and researched a lot of Pokemon. But they met a new friend in the Kanto region. His name is Squirt. He likes Pokemon. His first Pokemon is Sheldon. Pedro and Charlie introduced themselves. Then they continue their journey with Squirt on their side. It's one more step for Pedro and Charlie to be Pokemon masters.

Chapter 3

Sword & Shield I

When Squirt, Charlie and Pedro arrived in the Galar region, they found out the Pokemon was just Galarian Pokemon like Galarian Zigzagoon to Galarian Meowth. The Galar region was super cool, filled with amazing Galarian Pokemon that they had never seen before!

Squirt, Charlie and Pedro met a new gym leader, Lt. Surge. He was strong and unbeatable.

Charlie battled Lt. Surge for the Thunder Badge.

Charlie never battled a gym leader before. When they got out of the gym, Raichu was waiting for them. It looks angry. Pedro decided to battle it. He sends out Venusaur. It didn't dynamax though. Venusaur defeated Raichu with one move. Pedro threw a Poke ball and it flew through the air and landed on Raichu. Raichu disappeared in a flash of light.

"I got a Raichu!" Pedro smiled.

The next day, the three heroes went to the Slumbering Weald. It was a weird place, but it didn't matter. It has a sword and a shield in the middle of the forest floor. Squirt, Charlie and Pedro can't believe it.

Charlie and Pedro took the sword and shield. They shared it together.

"Friendship never ends," Squirt smiled.

Chapter 3

Sword & Shield II

The next day, Squirt, Pedro and Charlie went to Hammerlocke Stadium.

They battled Eternatus. Squirt, Pedro and Charlie used all their Pokemon. Quagsire used Bubble Beam, Swanna used Aerial Ace, Sheldon used Ancient Power, Charizard used Flamethrower, and Venusaur used Vine Whip.

Squirt, Pedro and Charlie held on to the Gigantamax Pokeball.

They threw the Pokeball high in the air. POP! Out came Zacian and Zamazenta!

Zacian strikes Eternatus with its great sword. Zamazenta absorbs the attack of Eternatus and fires it right back. Suddenly, Eternatus fainted!

Pedro, Squirt and Charlie threw the Gigantamax Pokeball high into the air. It landed on Eternatus. It absorbed a huge amount of energy.

Suddenly, E.V.E said: "Eternatus is registered to your Pokedex."

"YES!" Squirt, Pedro and Charlie high fived together and they did a happy jig. Catching Eternatus was fun!

Chapter 4

Sun and Moon

Remember Pedro caught Venusaur in Chapter 2? Well, if you don't believe me, read Chapter 4 to find out.

After catching Venusaur, Pedro and Charlie went to find Wigglytuff. Squirt stayed in the Pokemon center with Ash's mom, Delia.

They found it right away. "Go, Charizard!" Charlie yelled. POP!

Charizard used Flamethrower attack, just like he did while defeating Quagsire.

Wigglytuff fell down, defeated.

Pedro caught it with his Poke ball.

"I caught a Wigglytuff!" The heroes shouted.

The next day, Pedro found a Gloom next to his house. Charlie decided to battle it.

"Go, Swanna!" POP! Swanna used Water Gun attack at Gloom. SPLASH! Gloom fainted.

Charlie caught it with his Poke ball.

"I caught a Gloom!" Charlie cheered.

It is a great way to catch Pokemon.

One night, the blinding one named Necrozma, covered the sky with thick and spooky fog, so everyone bumped into each other because they couldn't see anything!

Charlie and Pedro need to do something! They should be helping Necrozma, not fighting it.

Charlie and Pedro went to the Pokemon center to look for Squirt, and they got a strange Pokeball named the Ultra Ball.

Charlie, Pedro and Squirt ran out of the Pokemon center and faced Necrozma. Looks like a big fight is coming to begin!

First, Pedro sent out Solgaleo, the Sun Pokemon. He got it from the Pokemon center. POP!

Second, Charlie sent out Marshadow, the Gloomdweller Pokemon. He also got it from the Pokemon center. POP!

Last, Squirt sent out Lunala, the Moon Pokemon. He finally got it from the Pokemon center too. POP!

First, Solgaleo used Giga Impact. It was a strong move. It was a head butt move. Solgaleo then used Sunsteel Strike, which is also a powerful move. The move hit Necrozma on the face! (very funny!)

Second, Marshadow used Laser Focus. It is a painful move. Marshadow then used Fire Punch, which is also a painful move. The move hit Necrozma on the leg! (even funnier!)

Last, Lunala used Moonblast, which is a moon move. Lunala then used Night Shade, which is also a moon move. The move hit Necrozma on the body!

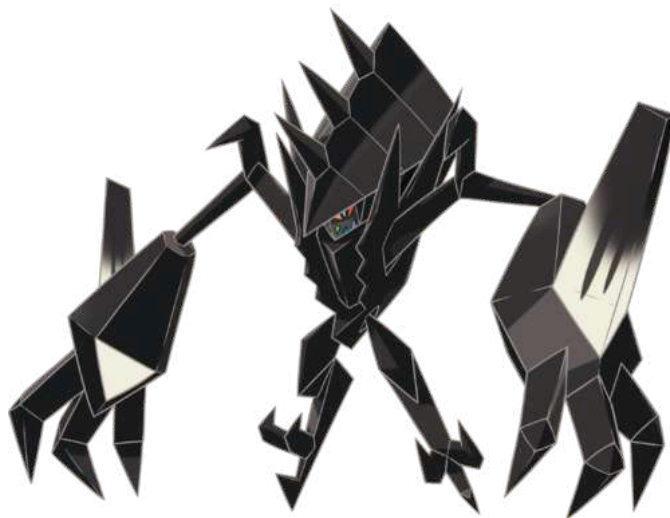

SCREECH!!! Necrozma screamed painfully and loudly for 1 second then fainted! Necrozma's body collapsed on the ground.

Squirt threw an Ultra Ball and it landed on Necrozma.

POOF! WOBBLE WOBBLE WOBBLE, CLICK!

Suddenly, Necrozma disappeared inside the Ultra Ball.

E.V.E said, "Necrozma is registered in your Pokedex." Catching Necrozma is fun!

Chapter 5

Diamond & Pearl

In the Sinnoh region, Squirt, Charlie and Pedro caught a lot of Pokemon from Aipom to Mismagius. It was so cool, they had never been there before.

They met Dawn along the way. Dawn was a Pokemon trainer in the Hoenn and Sinnoh region.

Pedro met a disgusting Pokemon called Stunky. It is gross. Pedro didn't want to catch it. It evolved into Skuntank.

Pedro and his friends ran away!

But they ran into Blissey, the egg Pokemon. "Blissey~ Blissey~ Blissey~" It sang.

Squirt, Pedro and Charlie fell asleep, because of Blissey's song.

The next day, they woke up. Blissey was gone! That was a relief!

Instead of Blissey, three Eevees were there. They were cute. They have white fluffy fur.

Eevee's teeth shine like moon light.

But they were sleeping because of Blissey's song!

POOF! WOBBLE WOBBLE WOBBLE, CLICK!

Charlie caught one with his Poke Ball.

Squirt and Pedro caught one too.

"I caught an Eevee!" Charlie smiled and hopped up and down.

The next day, they went to the Pokemon center. They bought some stuff. Charlie got a fire stone. Squirt got a water stone. Pedro got a leaf stone.

Charlie evolved his Eevee into Flareon using the fire stone. Flareon has a move like Babydoll Eyes.

Squirt evolved his Eevee into Vaporeon using the water stone. Vaporeon has a fish tail and moves like Bubble Beam.

Pedro evolved his Eevee into Leafeon using the leaf stone. Leafeon has a leaf tail and a pair of leaf ears. It has a move like Vine Whip.

What a day!

Chapter 6

Scarlet & Violet

When in Paldea region, the three friends explored and met a lot of Paldean Pokemon. They saw and caught some Pokemon from Pawmi to Pawmot, they are fighting and electric types.

When running out of time because the three friends were to leave Paldea soon, Pedro bumped into Fidough!

Pedro wanted a Fidough so he got some berries for Fidough to eat. Then Pedro caught it with his Poke Ball.

Charlie spotted a Dachsbun and he also got some berries for it to eat.

Pedro also wanted a Dachsbun, so he released Fidough out of the Poke Ball. Guess what? Fidough really evolved into Dachsbun!

Chapter 7

Hisui

Oh! We forgot about Hisui. Okay, here we go!

In the Sinnoh region, the three friends entered Hisui. Hisui was a region that has a lot of people. Hisui was a part of the Sinnoh region (Hisui was actually Sinnoh).

Hisui has Japan's favourite food. The three friends loved their favourite food. Until they saw a strange Pokemon with a mask. Its name is Ogerpon. It started attacking Charlie and his friends. It used Razor Leaf attack, because it was a grass type.

Squirt, Charlie and Pedro used all their Pokemons.

Suddenly, Ogerpon fainted.

Someone threw an Ultra Ball.

Suddenly, Ogerpon disappeared and someone took the Ultra Ball.

It was Pedro.

Chapter 8

Mega Evolution!

The next day in the Kalos region, the three friends went to Evolution Mountain. Pedro mega evolved his Venusaur into Mega Venusaur. Charlie mega evolved his Charizard into Mega Charizard Y. Also, Squirt's Sheldon evolved into Bastiodon. Also, Charlie made up a story...

"Once upon a time, there were three friends. A dino, a rhino, and a baby turtle. They are best friends. Until one day, a Pokemon went by and the three friends attacked the Pokemon. The Pokemon fainted. Also, they defeated some gym leaders. The end."

"That was a cool story," smiled Pedro.

Chapter 9

X & Y

"Hey. Knock knock." Charlie said.

Pedro yawned. "Who is there?"

"Me." Charlie replied.

Pedro yawned again. "Me who?"

"It's me," said Charlie.

"It is not funny at all!" Pedro shouted. He stormed out with Mega Venusaur.

Charlie sighed.

Squirt cheered him up.

"You don't make funny jokes to Pedro!" Squirt shouted. He also stormed out with Bastiodon.

Charlie sighed again. This is nothing but a bad day.

Chapter 10

Final Battle

The next day in Pallet town, there was a final battle between Squirt versus Pedro and Charlie.

First, Squirt sent out Bastiodon.

Next, Pedro sent out Eternatus. It was very strong now.

Finally, Charlie sent out Zamazenta. It was also very strong.

Zamazenta used Hidden Power towards Bastiodon. It was a powerful move. The move hit Bastiodon on its tail. It was super effective!

Squirt threw a Tera Type Poke Ball, and suddenly Bastiodon transformed into the stellar type. It was strong, and had a normal blinking crystal on the top of its head.

Bastiodon used Rock Tomb towards Zamazenta and Eternatus. But there was no effect!

Squirt was shocked! He recalled Bastiodon and sent out Pawmi. He threw a Tera Type Poke Ball on Pawmi and it transformed into the stellar type. It has an electric shiny bolt on the top of its head. Pawmi used Thunder Shock towards Zamazenta and Eternatus! The move shocked them! They almost fainted but still strong.

Zamazenta and Eternatus combined their moves together to make one big armour. The armour striked down Pawmi and it fainted.

Pedro and Charlie won the battle. They jumped up and cheered!

Chapter 11

Friends Forever

"Run for your lives!" I shouted just as the tank was about to rumble over us."

Charlie closed the book (My Weird School by Dan Gutman) with a huge smile. Charlie loved this book very much. He planned to go for next adventure with Pedro and Squirt.

Squirt was sorry because he lost his battle yesterday. But suddenly, a wild Dynamax Blastoise gushed out water. SPLASH!

Squirt and his friends are all wet.

Squirt sent out Zacian and commanded it to use a shield.

Charlie sent out Zamazenta, and Pedro sent out Venusaur.

Zacian and Zamazenta combined their attack to make one big iron golem (from Minecraft). The iron golem smashed the Dynamax Blastoise and it shrunk back to normal size and fainted.

Venusaur started whapping Blastoise and it walked away.

Zacian, Zamazenta and Venusaur got called back to their Poke Balls.

Squirt, Charlie, and Pedro cheered, high-fived and hugged each other. That's why this chapter is called friends forever.

Chapter 12

Dynamax Battle

In Ash's house, Delia gave the three friends hot chocolates to get warm. Even the Pokemons drink it, with some Pokemon food. Ash's dad made fluffy Eevee shaped pancakes. Everyone ate it, and it was so warm.

They said goodbye to Ash, Ash's mom and dad, and headed to the stadium. They are ready for a battle.

The battle begins with Charlie versus Squirt.

Charlie sent out Zamazenta and Flareon.

Squirt sent out Bastiodon and Pawmi.

First, Zamazenta and Flareon combined their attack to make protective babydoll eyes armour. Zamazenta and Flareon did surprise Quick Attack at the same time. The Quick Attack hurted Bastiodon and Pawmi, and they almost fainted.

Then, Pawmi used Thunder Shock. Flareon dodged the attack! But Zamazenta absorbed it and fired it right back!

Suddenly, Bastiodon and Pawmi fainted. It was a knock out.

Charlie won the battle.

Coming up next, it was Charlie versus Pedro.

Charlie sent out Swanna and Charizard.

Pedro sent out Venusaur and Dachsbun.

Charlie used Tera Orbs to Terastallize Swanna and Charizard. They transformed into Stellar Form. They have crowns on their heads.

Pedro Dynamaxed Venusaur and Dachsbun. Dynamax Venusaur started the battle with a big Solar Beam!

Swanna used a big Bubble Beam, trapping Dynamax Venusaur!

Pedro was curious because Swanna used a big Bubble Beam.

Pedro commanded Dynamax Venusaur to use a Z-Move called Bloom Doom. Swanna dodged the Bloom Doom then Charizard released a big hot Flamethrower!

Dynamax Venusaur and Dynamax Dachsbun were knocked out.

Charlie won the final battle versus Pedro.

That night at Charlie's house, Charlie wrote all the adventures into his diary. When he was done, he started to read.

" Then the Bad Guys pounced on Wolf - it was time to exact their revenge! "

The End
